MY DEAR PEOPLE,

There is little parish news to report this month. I am supposed to be on holiday, but fear I shall not be able to get away from home, nor can I find anyone as yet to do holiday duty for me.

The Bishop is very anxious that every parish in the Diocese should discuss the question of evangelisation and try out some scheme to endeavour to get people to rededicate themselves to the service of God and in the dark days before us to make a united effort as a parish to give more time to prayer and worship.

I hope to discuss all this with the Church Council shortly and to have a meeting in the parish some time in September or October.

I should like to extend to Mr. and Mrs. Sladden our deepest sympathy with them in their sad loss of their little one.

Yours affectionately,

LIONEL MEADE.

Mothers' Union.

There was a meeting at the Rectory in July, at which Mrs. Burt, from Dorking, very kindly came and spoke, and there was a moderate attendance.

There will be no meeting in August, and the next meeting will be at the Hammer, at 8 o'clock, on September 9th, when Mrs. Hope-well is coming to speak. This is plenty of notice, so please put the day apart.

The Jam Preserving Centre.

The Jam Preserving Centre this year is to be at the "Studio," Pasturewood House, by kind permission of Dr. Goff.

Mrs. Stannard (Secretary) and Mrs. O'Kelly would be pleased to purchase fruit, and welcome any one who would like to help. Fruit can be left at Mrs. O'Kelly's, or at "The Fox."

The co-operation of all parishioners is desired to make the Centre a success.
